

S.O.A.P STUDY

SATURDAY 9TH JANUARY 2021

25) "To whom will you compare me? Or who is my equal?" says the Holy One. Lift your eyes and look to the heavens: Who created all these? He who brings out the starry host one by one, and calls them each by name. Because of his great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing. Why do you say, O Jacob, and complain, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the LORD; my cause is disregarded by my God"? Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no-one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who (wait) hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. ISAIAH 40:25-31

APPLICATION:

PRAYER:

Scripture

Read through the daily scripture/s slowly & thoughtfully asking God to speak to your heart through the scripture/s.

Look at the scripture/s again and reflect for a few minutes. What does the scripture seem to be saying about God, and maybe also the people in the passage.

Observation

Application

Now honestly ask your self how the scripture might apply to your own life. Was there one key verse/phrase that stood out to you more? Maybe it's teaching you about God's likes & dislikes, or it revealed to you an action to begin, a promise you should claim, or an attitude or sin you need to change.

Write down a sentence or two about what you learned to apply to your life from the scripture. Now Pray and ask God that by his Holy Spirit he will help you to begin to apply the truth you received from his word in your life today.
